

PANELIST BIO

JILLIAN KELLER

---

Jillian Keller has been with Cleveland State for eight years, reimagining the Marejoyce Green Women's Center and creating Lift Up Vikes Resource Center & Food Pantry. Prior to joining Cleveland State, she was the director of a local community recreation department. A graduate of Ohio University and Miami University, Jillian has a passion for working with students dealing with life transitions, hunger and homelessness. She spends an inordinate amount of time eating dark chocolate and contemplating the effects of student poverty on college degree completion as well as ways to support single-parent students. Jillian's passions include her family, hiking, and Playhouse Square.