

PANELIST BIO

DIANE HUPP

Diane Hupp has been the Vice President of the Employee Relations Department since 2009. Diane and her team manage employee and labor relations on a global basis through strategic planning, change and development initiatives, and providing advice and counsel on specific employee related matters. Before joining the department, Diane was an in-house attorney in Sherwin-Williams' Legal Department from 1992 to 2009, where she was responsible for managing employee benefits, executive employment and compensation matters, as well as general corporate contracts and transactions. Prior to joining the Company, Diane was an associate attorney at a multi-national law firm in Cleveland, Ohio.

Diane received her BA in business with an emphasis on finance and a minor in Economics from Baldwin Wallace College in 1986. Diane received her Juris Doctor (JD) from the Cleveland Marshall College of Law in 1989. She was admitted to the Bar of the State of Ohio in November 1989.