

PANELIST BIO

LAUREN RUDMAN

Lauren Rudman is the Director, Human Resources for Donley's, Inc., a Cleveland based construction services company. She is responsible for talent management, talent acquisition, performance management, compensation, and employee relations. Prior to Donley's, she served as the Human Resources Manager at Pentair (formerly ERICO International Corporation), a global manufacturing company focused on commercial construction products. Prior to Pentair/ERICO, she spent 6 years with the Greater Cleveland Regional Transit Authority in various Human Resources roles and participated in the Authority's first Management Development Program, a 20 month company- wide rotational program. Lauren graduated from Cleveland State University with a Master of Labor Relations and Human Resources and from Miami University with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration with a focus in Human Resources. She is SPHR and SHRM-SCP certified. Lauren is active in the Cleveland non-profit community, serving as the Vice Chair and Governance Chair of Engage! Cleveland, Board Trustee with the Cleveland State University Alumni Association, Board Trustee with Malachi House, and Board Trustee with Linking Employment, Abilities, and Potential (LEAP). She is also Past President of the Cleveland Society for Human Resource Management.