

PANELIST BIO

AMY GOLDMAN

---

Amy Goldman is currently the Associate Director of Career Services at CSU. Her 20+ year career history within social service and higher education environments includes working with college students, resettled immigrants, re-entry women and mid - career professionals in transition.

She was recruited to Case Western Reserve University to establish Alumni Career Services and spent 9 years as the Director of Career Services for the Cleveland Institute of Art.

Amy focuses on guiding and coaching others to find career success through understanding of their personal interests and strengths, skill development and education.